The attack affected some of the most iconic properties on the Las Vegas Strip, such as the Bellagio, the Cosmopolitan and the Mandalay Bay, as well as other MGM resorts across the Strip. The attack occurred on Tuesday, July 2, 2024, and affected a large number of MGM properties across the Strip. The attack was carried out by a group of hackers who stole a large amount of data, including the names and contact information of MGM employees and guests. The hackers also managed to gain access to the MGM's internal systems, including the MGM's loyalty program database. The attack was a major security breach for MGM and has raised concerns about the company's ability to protect its data. The company has since taken steps to improve its security and has apologized to its customers. The attack was a significant event in the history of MGM and has had a major impact on the company's reputation.
