Different forms of football have existed for centuries.

(For more on the development of football sports, see football.

) In Britain, football games may have been played as early as the time of Roman occupation in the 1st century bce.

During the 14th and 15th centuries ce, Shrove Tuesday football matches became annual traditions in local communities, and many of these games continued well into the 19th century.

These localized versions of folk football (a violent sport distinctive for its large teams and lack of rules) gradually found favour within the English public (independent) schools, where they were modified and adapted into one of two forms: a dribbling game, played primarily with the feet, that was promoted at Eton and Harrow, and a handling game favoured by Rugby, Marlborough, and Cheltenham.

The potential return of a 'No Russian'-like mission in Modern Warfare 3 (2024) campaign.

According to leaks and rumors, Modern Warfare 3 (2024) might feature a mission similar to No Russian. This speculation makes sense when one considers the character development of Makarov throughout the series.
